Questions ouvertes

En général :

- Mot interrogatif + auxiliaire + sujet + verbe + complément ?

- en who : en mot à mot

En anglais

3. Choice question

Common types of responses

✓ 1 of 2 options is given:

For example: Would you like some tea or some coffee?

- Tea. Thanks!

✓ Do not choose one but offer another:

For example: Are you going out for dinner or staying in?

- I'm going to order delivery.

Advice

1. Frequently asked questions with “or” to choose from.
2. Some fixed answers to selected questions to keep in mind:
 - Whichever / Either
 - Neither (None at all.)
 - Prefer: prefer which one

4. Statement

Common types of responses

✓ Common answers also give their opinions: agree / disagree or neutral.

Example: I was very impressed with Zoey's singing.

- Yes, she has a wonderful voice.

Advice – Tips Part 2 TOEIC Test Listening

- Give a situation that requires the listener to have a reasonable answer
- Make comments => give an opinion of agreement or opposition
- The more repeated an answer, the more trap it is and the error is likely to be wrong

4. Tag question

Common types of responses

✓ Answer yes / no:

For example: You know her, don't you?

- No, I don't know.

✓ Indirect answer without Yes / No:

Example: You set up chairs in the conference room, didn't you?

- Yes, 200 seats in total

Advice

1. This is the easiest question type in part 2. You only need to select the answer that contains Yes or No in the answer.
2. Some common words in the answer to remember:
 - Sure / Of course
 - Why not?
 - Yes / No

6. Suggestion question

Common types of responses

✓ Answer yes / no:

For example: Would you like to drink coffee?

- No, thanks. I have to go now.

✓ Answer no Yes / No:

For example: Would you like to walk to the convention center? (Do you want to walk to the convention center?)

That sounds like a great idea. (That seems like a great idea.)

Advice

This is a suggested question that can start with:

- Why don't you / we + V (infi)
- How about + V (ing)
- Let's + v (infi)

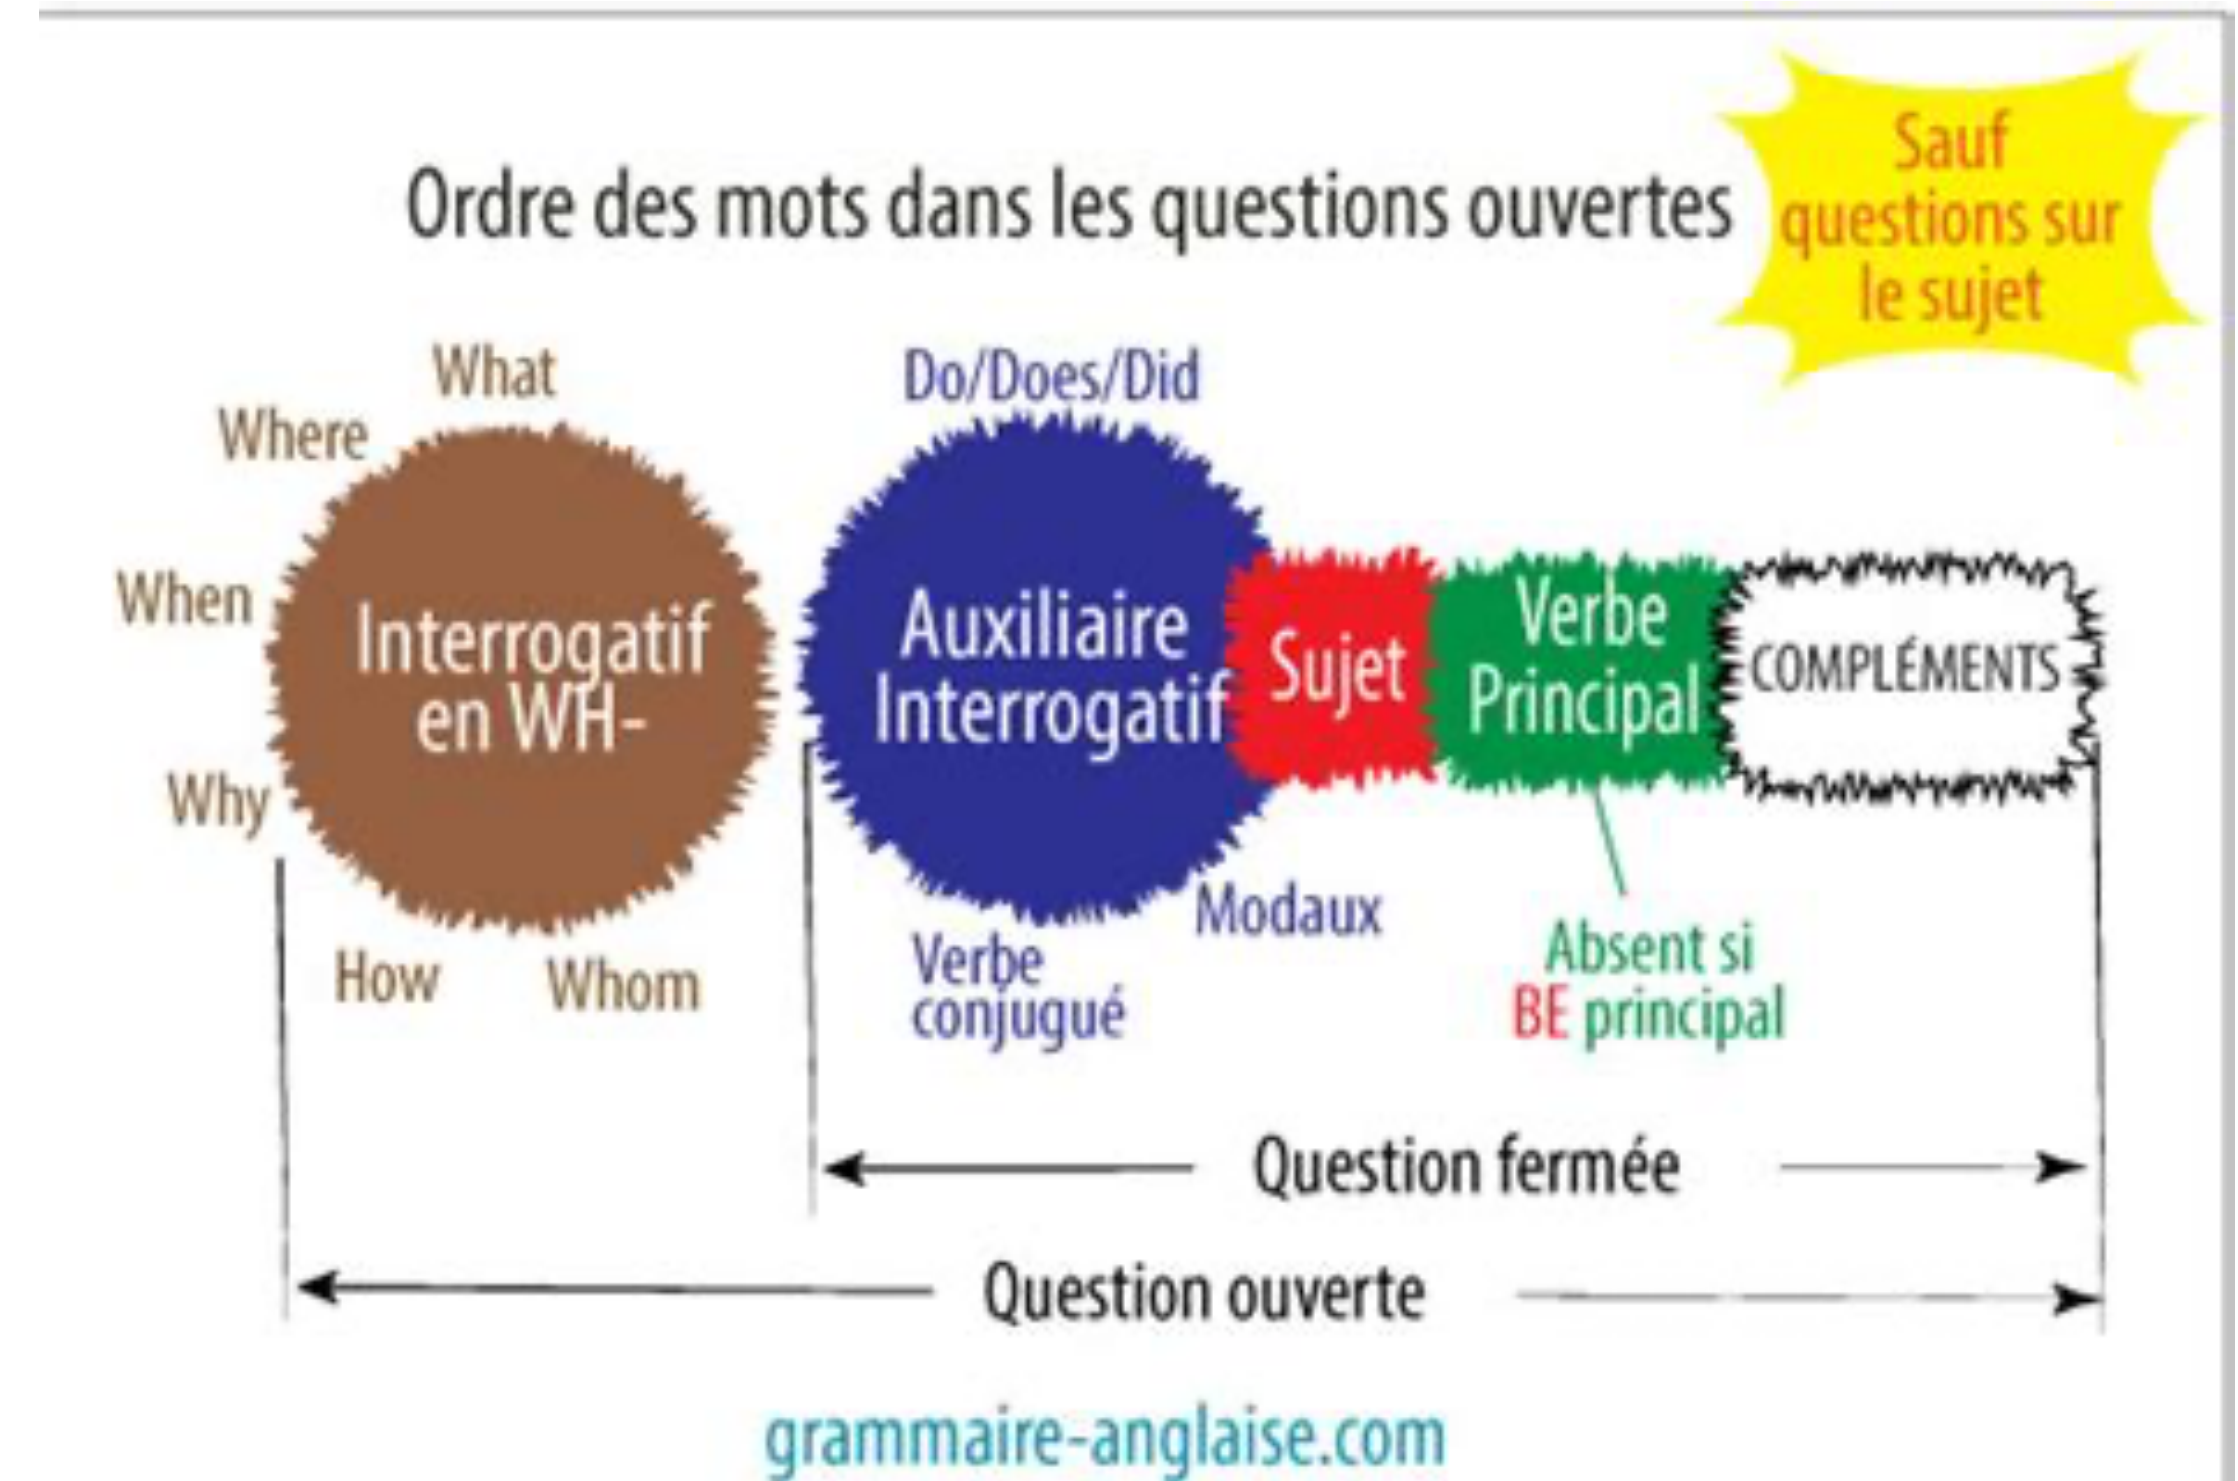

The note when practicing

- Learn and remember the types of questions and answers corresponding to each type of question.
- Listen carefully to the question at the first word to determine the type of question.
- Listen to the answers and use the exclusion method to choose the correct answers.
- For beginners, the spelling method as I shared in part 1 can still be applied effectively to increase the ability to hear correctly.

Les questions fermées
